Jersey

A great day out with something for everyone.

With such a variety of things to see and do, and only just over an hour away from Guernsey by fast ferry, Jersey is the ideal location for a day trip. Enjoy an action packed day of outdoor pursuits, walk the dramatic coastline and leafy country lanes or simply relax and take in the cosmopolitan ambience.

Soak up village life and enjoy the stunning harbour views of Gorey and St Aubin, where you can experience traditional beach cafes or fabulous seafood at a host of wonderful restaurants.

In St Helier, browse the myriad of boutique shops offering great value jewellery and clothes.

Conservation

Durrell Wildlife Conservation Trust

World famous Durrell Wildlife Conservation Trust provides visitors the opportunity to see how Durrell has been saving endangered species from extinction for over 50 years. The Trust's founder, Gerald Durrell, inspired an army of conservationists, both at the Jersey headquarters and worldwide. Walk, look, listen and play in 32 acres of incredible parkland. Marvel at 130 species, including gorillas, lemurs, flamingos and orangutans.

History

JERSEY WAR TUNNELS

Jersey War Tunnels

Jersey War Tunnels gives a unique view into Island life under the Nazi regime. This year, the 65th anniversary of the Island's liberation, sees two new experiences open to the public. 'Resistance' and 'Liberation' provide completely new insights into the Occupation and look closely at the dilemmas faced by all involved, including the occupying forces and the UK government.

Jersey War Tunnels is open every day (10am to 6pm) from 1st March to 28th November. www.jerseywartunnels.com
